Getting you away safely

To assist with safe and timely boarding, customers are advised to be waiting on the wharf five minutes before the ferry's scheduled departure time. When boarding, keep a firm hold of your belongings and hold onto the gangway rail. Where possible, bulky items like prams, bikes or trolleys should be folded before boarding.

Sydney Ferries tickets can be purchased from PREPAY ticket outlets, the cashier onboard some services, ticket offices at Circular Quay or Manly or ticket machines at Circular Quay, Darling Harbour or Manly Terminal. Fare evasion is a crime – always carry a valid ticket. Fines of up to $550 may apply. For additional fares information and outlets, visit www.131500.com.au/tickets. If returning on the same day we recommend purchasing a return ticket.

Family Funday Sunday tickets and event days

For a flat fare of $2.50 per person your family can enjoy a great day out with unlimited travel on Sydney's buses, trains and ferries. Only available on Sundays, when a minimum of one adult and one child related by family are travelling together. Conditions apply.

How to use this timetable

- Use the route map provided to locate your relevant departure and arrival wharves. (Note: your nearest wharf may not appear in this reference guide - check the full timetable for further departures.)
- Choose the timetable relating to your day of travel.
- Find your departure wharf on this timetable in the suitable direction of travel (i.e. towards or away from Cockatoo Island). Follow this line across the page to see departure times.
- From your desired departure time, follow that service down the page until you reach the line of your destination wharf. This is the time of arrival of your service at your destination wharf.

Sundays, Public Holidays and Event Days

The Sunday and Public Holidays timetable applies to most public holidays and event days. Sundays and event days are particularly busy days on both services travelling to and from Cockatoo Island. Consider catching an earlier ferry home to beat the rush.
